

UK Seminar 2022: Agenda

We are looking forward to being back at the beautiful London Wetland Centre for a face-to-face Seminar, where we will explore the hot sustainability topics facing publishing, including climate change, modern slavery, and circularity. There will also be opportunities to catch-up and network.

Venue: London Wetland Centre, Queen Elizabeth Walk, London SW13 9WT.

09.30-10.00	Arrival Arrive by 09.45 to allow time for registration. Tea & coffee will be served.
10.00-10.15	Introduction to the Book Chain Project
10.15-11.00	Innovating for circularity Tom Salisbury, Sustainable Business Manager, Vodafone
11.00-12.30	Human & Labour Rights in the Supply Chain Candida Barbato, Independent Consultant Rabiya Ravat, Director of Modern Slavery Victim Care and Refugee Resettlements services
12.30-2.00	Lunch + opportunity to walk around the Wetland Centre
2.00-3.50	Climate, forests & nature Simon Harold, Senior Editor, Nature Ecology and Evolution Lisen Runsten, Senior Programme Officer & Sharon Brooks, Principal Business and Biodiversity, UNEP-WCMC Sami Oksa, Director of Stakeholder Relations, UPM Kymmene
3.50-4.10	Coffee break
4.10-4.50	Breakout session
4.50-5.25	Engaging colleagues and customers on sustainability Joanna Yarrow, Founding Partner, M&C Saatchi LIFE
5.25-5.30	Thank you & wrap up
5.30-7.00	Drinks at the Red Lion, Barnes